BEN MORTON

Ben Morton has an incredibly powerful story to tell. He shares with audiences the leadership principles learned from his career in the Army and with global businesses.

- Leadership is less about the tools and models and more about understanding what it really means to be a leader
- Leadership is about personal sacrifice and putting the needs of others ahead of your own
- Leadership is both a great privilege and a great responsibility.

Ben delivers highly emotional speeches, packed with personal experience and points of reflection that leave his audiences with clear actions to take away and apply.

He draws from personal leadership experience gained from operating on the battlefield and in the boardroom. Coupled with this he has 10 years' experience of developing leaders and studying how people actually learn.

“Leadership is both a great privilege and a great responsibility.”

Book Ben to speak on

Lifting the Mask on Leadership. How to strip out the complexities of leadership and move away from a reliance on tools and models. Getting back to the core principles of leadership and being the best, most authentic version of ourselves as leaders.

The Three Secrets of Trust... that create high performing teams and will lead people to do incredible things for each other and for their leaders.

“ I heard Ben deliver the most inspiring talk on Leadership last week at the London Business Network. If you are running a company and want leaders to lead from the front, then please ask Ben to show you how. It will be a journey like you have never seen or experienced before! Truly inspirational.

Francis West
Westtex Solutions

“ Ben gave one of the most sobering and thought - provoking lectures I've heard for a long time - what a story to finish with!

Barry Cox
Merlin Entertainment

“ Ben is instantly credible and engaging. He has that rare ability to draw on real life experiences, talk about them in clear, simple language, devoid of jargon, buzzwords and platitudes, and relate them to the world of business and indeed the bigger world beyond. Well worth listening to, a leader to follow for sure.

Rodger Armstrong
